Charlie 2 Class 19-67

A month ago today, six of your class mates gathered at Robinson Barracks and we remembered you! It was like the forty years since our graduation was a blink. We need more of our group to join us, before we join you. Be assured you are remembered Tom.

Still Jarking

Dear Tom, We were OCS classmates, an experience to remember. I am going to Ft. Sill on June 14th, 2006 for a reunion. I'll think of you when I stand on top of MB-4 and look down on our old Robinson Barracks area. I Jarked in remembrance of you on May 18th, 1999 and carried a rock back with me and put your name on it. I'm looking at that rock now as I write this. Everytime I return to Ft. Sill I get a wonderful piece of mind that has been good for my soul. I like to go to the OCS museum and pay my respects at the plaque bearing your name. Thanks for serving your country and giving up your life so I may live in freedom. God speed Lieutenant. Your friend and classmate, Tom Sheehy, Major retired class 19-67

Fun Days At Fort Hood

We served in the same TO&E battery in the 1st of the 6th Arty at Ft. Sill. Had a wonderful time. I hope the lives of those who enjoyed your company, wit, and intelligence, justifies the trust you placed in us when you accepted us as friends. I was in RVN at Quan Loi when my wife of the time wrote to me about your passing. Also, that it occurred in saving your radioman. Thank you for the lives you saved.

Thirty-four years later, I still think about you.

We spent those wonderful six months together at Sill becoming butter bars. They shipped us to Hood, where we had more than one beer together, you, me, and Dave. We all had hot cars, and more money than we deserved. That part was good. We moved into Commanders Palace in Killeen so we wouldn't have to drive so far to work. That part was good too.

I went to flight school and lost contact with you and Dave. I didn't find out about you until 1973. That part was not good.

We'll have another beer Tom, I promise! It'll be good again.
