A good friend and great leader.

I served as Lt. Culp's RTO, (radio, telephone operator), and was on R&R when he was killed. I was in the field with him for several months. A better officer I never knew. God bless him and his family.

As FO for Charlie Company, I was very near John, the day he was wounded, in Kontum. John and I went through OCS together and were very good friends. His loss broke my heart. John was an outstanding officer. We did our best and loved every minute we spent with our comrades. It was the luck of the draw who made it out. Anyone near John was lucky to have him on their team. Only those that trooped the highlands loaded down as we were could understand the special bond those conditions forged. Good job, brother.
